

FREE TAX THROUGH AARP BEGINS FEBRUARY 1

AARP will be offering free tax assistance again this year, starting Wednesday, February 1. The hours for the program this year are: Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday from 9:30 a.m.— 2:00 p.m.

As has been true for the past few years, appointments are the preferred way of accessing the service. Walk-ins will be serviced only after all those with appointments are served.

You can make an appointment in one of two ways:

- Call: 502-709-9306
- On-line: aarp-tax-aide-lou.org/Sites/sites.html

Materials you will need to prepare your documents for processing are available in a plastic tub outside the church office.

We are pleased to make room for this service again this year.

Please pass the word to your neighbors, family, and friends.

First Baptist Church on America soil. His untiring advocacy of the absolute separation of church and state, not only echoed historic Baptist principles, but it provided the basis, over 150 years later, for the inclusion of the First Amendment to the U. S. Constitution.

Williams charged Winthrop, who had been his mentor, and the rest of the colonial Puritan leadership of abrogating the central message of the Gospel, that being—God will not coerce the conscience, but will seek by all loving means to bring people into a renewed fellowship with God and with God's people.

He contended that, since the coming of Jesus Christ, God would no longer work through one nation or people to fulfill his redemptive work in the world. Rather, the community of disciples of Jesus Christ would be a world-wide, inclusive community, where all stood on equal ground before God.

It is the church, Williams argued, that is the city set on a hill, not any government or nation. It is the church's calling to spread the Gospel to the whole world by the same loving, compassionate means employed by the one who calls us to follow him.

The year was 1630. John Winthrop and a group of Puritan dissenters within the Church of England were preparing to board the Arabella for the shores of North America, where they hoped to build a new life, free from persecution and able to build their vision of the church and the true Christian community. Before they set out on their journey, Winthrop delivered a lecture entitled, "A Model of Christian Charity."

Toward the end of that lecture he quoted the words from Matthew 5:14, "You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid." Winthrop sought to warn the congregation that their experiment would be as "as a city upon a hill, the eyes of all people are upon us, . . . So that if we shall deal falsely with our God in this work we have undertaken and so cause him to withdraw his present help from us, we shall be made a story and a byword through the world."

Unfortunately, Winthrop's words quickly became the watchword for a kind of Puritan/American exceptionalism that allowed them to persecute those who did not hew to the party line, as well as perpetrate unspeakable injustice and carnage on the Native peoples who refused to convert to Christianity. Their vision of the Kingdom of God on earth, quickly devolved into a version of the Kingdom that Jesus would not recognize.

One of the dissenters against their vision of this Puritan exceptionalist vision was Roger Williams, who started out as part of the Puritan dissent from the Church of England. When he arrived in the colony of Massachusetts, he soon found himself at odds with the Puritan leaders there. He argued that their vision of Christendom ran counter to the message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Forced into exile, Williams would settle in the area around what we now know as Providence, Rhode Island. There he sought to found a community where everyone was free to worship (or not worship) God according to the dictates of their conscience. Not only is he known as the founder of Rhode Island, but he

SET AS DATE TO VOTE ON 2023 BUDGET

On Sunday, February 12, immediately following our Worship Service, we will vote on the 2023 Church Budget as proposed by the Church Council and the Administrative Team. The vote on February 12, will be a vote, without discussion, on a motion approved at our January Congregational Meeting that the 2023 Budget be approved.

You should have received a copy of the Proposed 2023 Budget in the mail this past week. If you have not gotten your copy yet, please let us know and we will make sure you have a copy before Sunday.

If you have questions or concerns, please feel free to communicate them through the church office. We will attempt to respond to your questions or concerns, or put you in touch with someone who can.

As we vote on this budget, we are doing more than voting on a set of numbers. We are determining the foundations of our financial support for the ministry of our church.

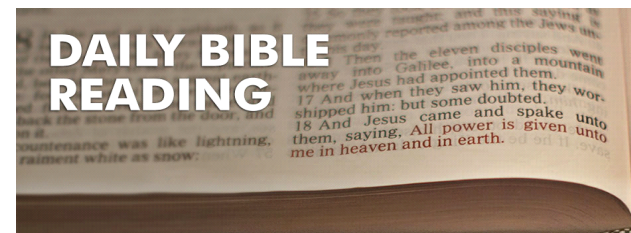

A 'yes' vote should come with a commitment to helping us provide a solid financial underpinning to our work. A 'no' vote should come with a commitment to find a better way forward.
