

FREE TAX AIDE FROM AARP CONTINUES THROUGH APRIL 15

AARP is offering free tax preparation assistance again this year at Lyndon. The hours for the program this year are: Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday from 9:30 a.m.— 2:00 p.m.

As has been true for the past few years, appointments are the preferred way of accessing the service. Walk-ins will be serviced only after all those with appointments are served.

You can make an appointment in one of two ways:

- Call: 502-709-9306
- On-line: aarp-tax-aide-lou.org/Sites/sites.html

Materials you will need to prepare your documents for processing are available in a plastic tub outside the church office.

We are pleased to make room for this service again this year.

Please pass the word to your neighbors, family, and friends.

We rarely think of Bible Study or worship as life or death events, do we? Yet, in one important aspect they are.

Whenever we gather to hear the Scriptures taught, read, and/or proclaimed, we are once again brought face-to-face with God's never-ending love and faithfulness. We are reminded that God has done for us what we could not do for ourselves -- freed us from the chains of sin and death that would destroy our lives. We are confronted with the Covenant God offers us in Jesus Christ, wherein God becomes our God and we become God's people.

At the conclusion of every Bible study or worship service, we are confronted with an altar call; an altar call not that much different from the one Moses offered Israel.

Will we choose life, or will we choose death? Will we choose to live into the life that Jesus calls us to, or will we go our own way? Will we trust that when Jesus promises us life in abundance that he not only means it, but that he can actually deliver it? It is our choice.

Week of February 12, 2023.

One of the most dramatic scenes in all of Scripture is described in this Sunday's Old Testament Lesson - Deuteronomy 30:15-20.

Throughout the whole of Deuteronomy, Moses has been recounting the history of Israel's encounter with God. He begins by reminding them why they wandered in the wilderness until the first generation of freed slaves died off because of their refusal to trust that the God who delivered them from slavery in Egypt could deliver them into the Promised Land.

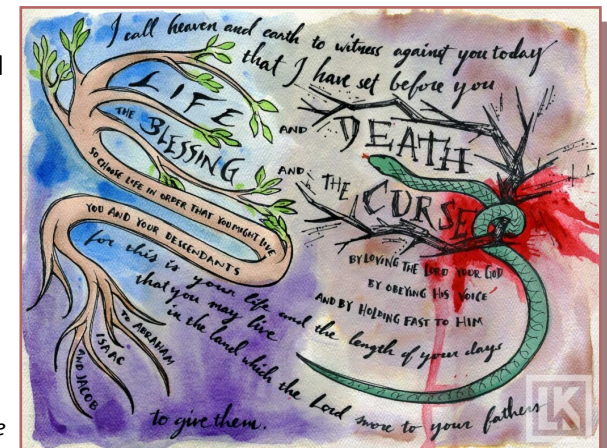

From that point, Moses goes on to weave the Covenant Commandments with the story of their wandering. He reminds them that at every twist and turn in the story that God has always been faithful to God's promises. But he also reminds them that God does not act in isolation, but in concert with the faithful response of the people to God's Covenant.

Moses closes his recitation with an altar call of sorts. Now, to understand this power of this altar call, we must remember where the book of Deuteronomy begins -- the people are gathered on the banks of the Jordan River, on the cusp of entering the Promised Land. Moses reminds them that they have been here before, and that time the story ended in disaster, because the people failed to trust in the never-ending faithfulness of God.

Standing on, or near, the place where God pronounced judgement on Israel's lack of faith, Moses challenges this new generation not to make the same mistake that their parents made.

Yet, he reminds them that they are presented with the same choice: life or death.

Valentine's Day is a celebration of all things heart and love. However, beyond romance and affection, it should also serve as a reminder to focus on your heart health. With our stressful and often unhealthy lifestyles, our hearts bear the brunt of it all. Hence, this Valentine's Day, you and your loved ones can make it a day to improve your cardiac health.

Most of us have more stress in our lives than we would like. This impacts our cardiovascular health and poses the risk of heart disease. Here are a few self-care tips.

- ◆ Have a heart friendly diet.
- ◆ Exercise regularly.
- ◆ Get adequate sleep.
- ◆ Nurture positive relationships.
- ◆ Treat yourself to a self-care activity.
- ◆ Practice gratitude.

PRAYER GUIDE

February 12, 2023

Sixth Sunday of Epiphany

O God, the strength of all who hope in you, because we are weak mortals we accomplish nothing good without you. Help us to see and understand the things we ought to do, and give us grace and power to do them, through Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord. Amen

PRAYER FOR THE MUSLIM WORLD

Praise God for an accurate diagnosis of a serious illness so effective treatment can begin.

Pray for personnel in training as they establish relationships and be equipped for service.

Pray for opportunities to provide clean water to communities.

Pray that training of house church leaders would be grounded in the Word.

Praise God for opportunities to share the good news.
