Jim's Jottings

This past Wednesday, during our Week of Prayer for State Missions program, we looked at eight different ministries being done around our state, from Cowboy Church to working with Special Needs adults and children. At the conclusion of the program, Nancy Polhill invited us to reflect on and name some of the ministries we are engaged with and/or involved in through our building and presence in this community.

As we began to name the various ministries we sponsor, partner with, or help make possible, I think we were all surprised at their number and variety. Let me share some of the things that were mentioned:

- ◆ We partner with two congregations to help reach and minister to persons of different cultures: the Hanmaeum Korean Baptist Church and The Church of Peniel for All Nations (Liberian).
- ◆ We provide space for:
 - ◆ Two AI Anon and two AA groups;
 - ◆ The Liberian Community of Kentucky and Southern Indiana;
 - ◆ The Korean School of Louisville;
 - ◆ The Joyous Singers;
 - ◆ The Music Studios of two local teachers;
 - ◆ Four months each year, we make possible free tax assistance AARP;
- ◆ For years we have partnered with St. Matthews Area Ministries to provide a home for their Child Development Center.

In addition to these ways we use our building in ministry to the community, the Mary Adkins Quilters make a variety of things, from lap blankets to hats that have provided comfort and warmth to many children and Sr. Adults. And their "prayer square" ministry has touched people far beyond Lyndon.

On an ongoing basis, we collect food and back-to-school items for Eastern Area Community Ministries, Baptist Fellowship Center, and Scarlett Jasper's ministry in the Appalachian region of our state. Several of our folks volunteer with Friendship International. And the list could go on and on. Those attended Wednesday's program were surprised at the number of things we came up with on the spur of the moment. May we never grow weary in doing well!

PRAYER FOR THE MUSLIM WORLD

Pray that visa renewal processes will proceed smoothly without interruptions in the work.

Pray that prayer support and financial support will continue.

Praise God for the courage of house church leaders as they share the Gospel.

Pray for two new workers for the women’s team.

Pray for team members facing health challenges. Pray that needed medical care will be available.

Ask God for boldness and wisdom in each member of our team so we can be examples to believers we train and a light to nonbelievers.
